

Design Professionals Council

Panel Discussion

Learn How Changes to the Law for the Practice of Architecture Affect You

Modifications to RCW18.08 will go into effect on July 1, 2011 and will impact licensed architects and other design professionals. At this panel discussion, presented by the Design Professionals Council, you will learn how changes to the law will affect the various groups in our industry and be able to take part in the question-and-answer session with the expert panel participants. All design professionals are invited to register. Membership with the Master Builders Association of King and Snohomish Counties is not required.

Date:

Tuesday, June 14, 2011
Noon to 1:30 p.m.

Location:

MBA Housing Center
335 116th Ave. SE
Bellevue, WA 98004

Cost:

$15 for DPC Members
$20 for non-DPC Members
($10 late fee after June 10)

Register online:

MasterBuildersInfo.com

Information:

Contact the Events Dept.
at (425) 451-7920 or events@mbaks.com

Preregistration is required.
No walk-ins.

Panelists

Stan L. Bowman, Hon. AIA/WA
Executive Director

American Institute of Architects Washington Council

As Executive Director, Bowman is the main lobbyist for the AIA/WA. Bowman's lobbying efforts helped pass the first updates in 25 years to the Washington state architecture licensing law.

Joe Vincent Jr.

Executive Director, Washington Board for Architects

Vincent also serves as administrator for the Landscape Architect Board, Geologist Licensing Board and the Funeral and Cemetery Board. He is also the interim administrator for the Department of Licensing's Dealer and Manufacturer Services Section.

Colin R. Jones, AIA/CSI/LEED AP/Principal

Jones has built a 31-year career working on public projects, organizing and coordinating users' needs with the technical and design requirements of projects. He specializes in the technical aspects of architectural practice and how it applies to environmentally sensitive buildings.

